Global Stone 2023 Start-up Event New Challenges on Dimension Stones, from Portugal to the World

Global Stone Congress 2023 was announced on June 2nd, 2022, with a small conference named GSC Start Up, during STONE Fair 2022.

The welcome pitch was made by Luis Martins, Chairman of de Board Cluster Portugal Mineral Resources and Luis Lopes, University of Évora, member of the GSC Executive Committee.

The launch featured 3 lectures offered by Agostinho da Silva (Administrator CEI- Member of the board Cluster Portugal Mineral Resources), António Silva (Geologist (ASSIMAGRA – Portuguese Association of Mineral Resources Industry / CTCV – Technological Centre of Ceramics and Glass)) and Isabel Almeida (ISCTE – University Institute of Lisbon), addressing the themes Digital Era and Green Deal.

The event also featured the presentation of 3 innovative products from SMEs: SOLANCIS, FRONTWAVE and FRAVIZEL.

Marta Peres, Executive Director of the Cluster Portugal Mineral Resources and General Secretary of the event, ended the session by presenting the history of this international congress since 2005 and launching the GSC 2023.

With more than 50 participants, this initiative was intended to be a save the date for 2023 and contribute to the exchange of knowledge and its continuity.

The Portuguese Dimension Stone Sector will be delighted to welcome the Global Stone Congress and you in Portugal, in 2023.

Soon we'll announce the date and location.
